Peace, Love and Good Vibes!

The weekend following International Friendship Day seemed like the perfect opportunity for a great night out with some fun team building activities. On Saturday, July 31st, our team donned their best Woodstock inspired attire and took part in a peddling tour through Perth.

First Aid Training

Are you interested in participating in a first aid training course?

We are looking to see if any of our service parents or guardians are interested in becoming certified in first aid.

To register your interest,
